

Your child is providing a gift so precious,
people are willing to die for it.

Somalia is one of the most dangerous countries in the world to be a Christian.

In a nation run by militant Muslim clans, anyone who dares to question Islam faces immediate, even deadly consequences. Abandonment by the family, physical torture and even death are to be expected by any who dare to call themselves Christian.

But the Heavenly Father does not abandon His children!

Into this spiritual darkness, the Light of the Gospel still shines. Somali people searching for the true God find hope in Jesus Christ, the Savior of the World.

Your child can help.

How? It's so simple. Read on...

Your child's mission offerings provide a message of hope for people in Somalia.

Every $5 given by your child's class provides a book about the Lutheran faith (Luther's Small Catechism or A Child's Garden of Bible Stories) in the Somali or Arabic language. These books are given free of charge to Somali people living in Kenyan refugee camps or who have emigrated to other countries, including the United States.

These books are small enough that they can easily be hidden beneath clothing or tucked away out of sight. For new Christians who feel very alone in the world, these books are a lifeline, answering their many questions about who God is and connecting them to their Christian brothers and sisters all around the world.

Sharing the Gospel in Somalia seems an impossible mission.
But we know that with God, all things are possible!
