

LUTHERAN HERITAGE FOUNDATION

*Translating, publishing, distributing and introducing
Lutheran materials around the world*

51474 Romeo Plank Rd.
Macomb, MI 48042
(800)554-0723 • www.LHFmissions.org

+ MISSION PRESENTATION SPEAKER +

Rev. Larry Rockemann LHF Church Relations

Rev. Larry Rockemann, church relations officer for the Lutheran Heritage Foundation, will be at your church soon to share how the Holy Spirit is at work through the LHF mission. His enthusiasm is contagious!

“Simple books,” he reflects. “The simple Bible stories that we learned as children growing up still have the power of God to turn hearts and lives around. Isn’t that amazing?”

Rev. Rockemann’s experiences as a parish pastor, dean of students at Concordia Seminary, and a nursing home chaplain have given him a unique perspective on the need for God’s Word across all generations.

“One thing I’ve come to realize is that no matter our age or stage in life, we always have a heart for missions,” he says. “A child can recognize that his Bible storybook can be appreciated by a child their age across the ocean. An LWML group here in this country feels the passion of knowing Christ and shepherding their families into the arms of Jesus, just like moms and wives everywhere. A grandfather here, just like a grandfather on the other side of the world, wants to make sure that his grandchildren continue to walk with the Lord.”

LUTHERAN HERITAGE FOUNDATION

*Translating, publishing, distributing and introducing
Lutheran materials around the world*

51474 Romeo Plank Rd.
Macomb, MI 48042
(800)554-0723 • www.LHFmissions.org

+ MISSION PRESENTATION SPEAKER +

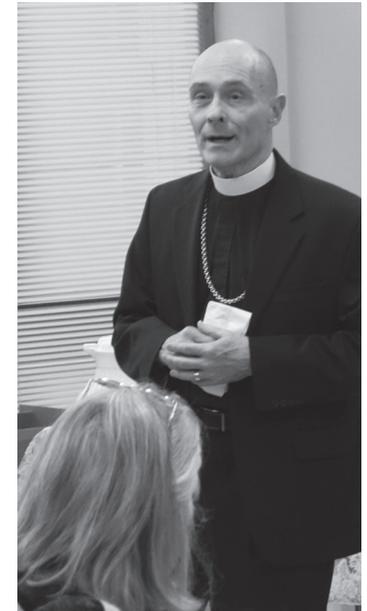

Rev. Larry Rockemann LHF Church Relations

Rev. Larry Rockemann, church relations officer for the Lutheran Heritage Foundation, will be at your church soon to share how the Holy Spirit is at work through the LHF mission. His enthusiasm is contagious!

“Simple books,” he reflects. “The simple Bible stories that we learned as children growing up still have the power of God to turn hearts and lives around. Isn’t that amazing?”

Rev. Rockemann’s experiences as a parish pastor, dean of students at Concordia Seminary, and a nursing home chaplain have given him a unique perspective on the need for God’s Word across all generations.

“One thing I’ve come to realize is that no matter our age or stage in life, we always have a heart for missions,” he says. “A child can recognize that his Bible storybook can be appreciated by a child their age across the ocean. An LWML group here in this country feels the passion of knowing Christ and shepherding their families into the arms of Jesus, just like moms and wives everywhere. A grandfather here, just like a grandfather on the other side of the world, wants to make sure that his grandchildren continue to walk with the Lord.”

“We hear in our own languages!” (Acts 2: 5-8)

Like the disciples bringing the Gospel to the people at Pentecost, you can help the Lutheran Heritage Foundation (LHF) translate and publish books that explain the Bible for people in languages they can understand.

Imagine trying to be a good Lutheran pastor when you’ve never read the Book of Concord, or even Luther’s Small Catechism. Or trying to explain to a five-year-old child who Jesus is – without any Bible storybooks.

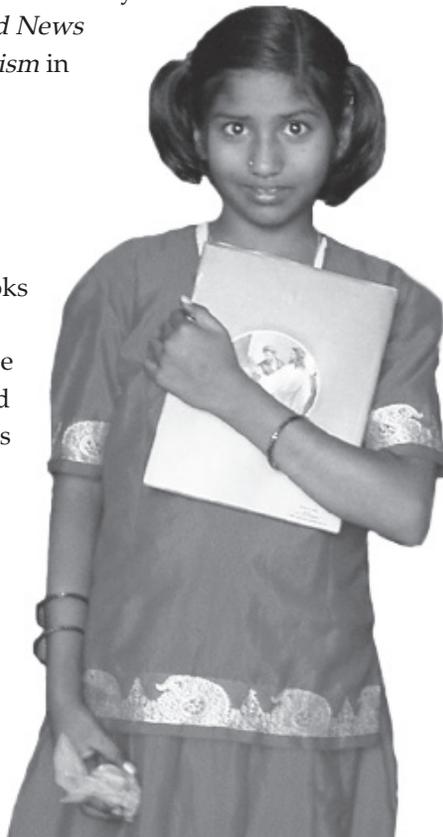

For Lutheran churches around the world, these situations are reality. They don’t have the basic books, so vital to understanding the Lutheran faith, because no one has translated them into their languages.

LHF translates the books that help people understand God’s Word.

In more than 80 countries and 90 languages, thousands of people of all ages have come to faith in Christ because they’ve been able to read books like The Good News About Jesus or Luther’s Small Catechism in their own languages.

You can help guide unbelievers to Jesus Christ.

To help translate and publish books like A Child’s Garden of Bible Stories into the languages of the world, please make your gifts payable to “LHF” and send to the address on the front of this insert. Or, give online: www.LHFmissions.org/Donate.

“We hear in our own languages!” (Acts 2: 5-8)

Like the disciples bringing the Gospel to the people at Pentecost, you can help the Lutheran Heritage Foundation (LHF) translate and publish books that explain the Bible for people in languages they can understand.

Imagine trying to be a good Lutheran pastor when you’ve never read the Book of Concord, or even Luther’s Small Catechism. Or trying to explain to a five-year-old child who Jesus is – without any Bible storybooks.

For Lutheran churches around the world, these situations are reality. They don’t have the basic books, so vital to understanding the Lutheran faith, because no one has translated them into their languages.

LHF translates the books that help people understand God’s Word.

In more than 80 countries and 90 languages, thousands of people of all ages have come to faith in Christ because they’ve been able to read books like The Good News About Jesus or Luther’s Small Catechism in their own languages.

You can help guide unbelievers to Jesus Christ.

To help translate and publish books like A Child’s Garden of Bible Stories into the languages of the world, please make your gifts payable to “LHF” and send to the address on the front of this insert. Or, give online: www.LHFmissions.org/Donate.

